

CS 160

San Jose State University

Instructor: Jahan Ghofraniha

Final Report Requirements, format and Rubrics

Each team member uploads the report individually for grading.

The formal project report should have the following sections:

1. Title
2. Table of Contents
3. Acknowledgements
4. Executive summary
5. Background/Introduction
6. Problem statement
7. Purpose/Motivation
8. Differentiator/Contribution (what is different about your project from what is currently available in the literature)
9. Methodology
10. Implementation & Results (In this section you should mention the contribution of each of the team members in the project)
11. Conclusions (summary of what has been achieved and direction for future work)
12. Appendix, should include the following:
 - a. links to your source code on github
 - b. the final report after each sprint from the agile project management tool to indicate progress and what was achieved in each sprint
 - c. Links to any demo/video of the demo
 - d. References

Rubrics for the Final Project Report:

Project Report Evaluation
Proper Format	15% of total for Final Report
Degree of Difficulty	15% of total for Final Report
Project management & Execution	40% of total for Final Report
Content & Quality	30% of total for Final Report